

Before me Asa Brigham Auditor, in the Town of Columbia
the Eleventh day of October 1836. Personally appeared Henry H.
Kane who upon oath deposes that the annexed account is just true and original, and that he is not indebted to the Government - he also acknowledged the receipt of a draft in his favor of that date on the treasury in his favor for Fourteen hundred and thirty nine Dollars, and sixteen cents, in full of the same -

$1439-16

I hereby certify ~~upon information~~ that the above account of Capt.
Kane is just and that I am authorized by him to give a receipt for the same amount of $1439-16 -

B. Abbott Auditor
